
Points: estimated means ± 95% CI from the model including the landscape x land cover x depth interaction. Depth classes are equally spaced (not to scale); land covers are offset within each class for readability. * = land cover differs from grassland (reference) at that depth within the landscape (Holm-adjusted across depths, $p < 0.05$).